DETAILED ACTION

Claim Objections

1. Claim 4 is objected to under 37 CFR 1.75(c), as being of improper dependent form for failing to further limit the subject matter of a previous claim. Applicant is required to cancel the claim(s), or amend the claim(s) to place the claim(s) in proper dependent form, or rewrite the claim(s) in independent form.

Note in claim 4, the limitation of "the second section is concave" is already described in claim 1, lines 3-4.

Specification

2. The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities:

at page 7, line 15, after "second", --section-- should be inserted; and at page 8, line 15, after "first", --section-- should be inserted.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

4. Claim 6 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as containing subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention.

Note in claim 6, "the milling cutter being any one of the group including an end mills of HSS, Solid Carbide, Cermetsa and Ceramics" should be described in the specification.

5. Claims 1-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 1, line 2, "the cutting edge" lacks proper antecedent basis.

Art Unit: 3722

In claim 2, line 1, "the length"; and line 2, "the cutter center" lack proper antecedent basis.

In claim 2, it is not clear what is meant by "the length..., as measured..." since whole claim is not understandable.

In claim 4, as set forth above, the limitation of "the second section is concave" is already described in claim 1, lines 3-4. It is not clear what the further limitation of the claim provides.

In claim 5, it is not clear what is meant by "the meeting point...forming an angle". How can a point form an angle ?

In claim 6, it is not clear what is meant by "a group including an end mill". Note a group should include more than one member.

In claim 6, line 2, it is not clear what is meant by "Cermetsa" since it was not defined.

Applicant is required to review the claims and correct all language which does not comply with 35 U.S.C. § 112, second paragraph.

Art Unit: 3722

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

6. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless --

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

7. Claims 1-6, as best understood, are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by the French Patent No. 1.190.274 (BR'274).

BR'274 discloses the claimed invention, as shown in Fig. 4, comprising: each tooth having a tooth face comprising at least two sections, a first section nearest the cutting edge(F) having a convex form, and a second section in a concave form(bear the center G).

BR'274 also discloses a concave chip-breaking section(N, or P in Fig. 4) between the first section and the second section having the first section and the concave section forming an angle.

Note inherently, BR'274'a device is any one of the group including end mills of HSS, Solid Carbide, Cermet and Ceramics.

Prior Art References

8. The prior art references listed in the attached PTO-892, but not used in a rejection of the claims, are cited for their device structure.
